MADAM PORTER'S Chart for cutting dresses and other garments is now for sale by Mrs. Erwin, at the dress-making establishment of Miss Iva Cook, who says it is the easiest and most perfect fitting system known. Ladies call and supply yourselves.

Another New Store.

Walter C. Dugger has rented the late stand of Mr. Erwin on the north side of the public square, where he will open about the middle of this month, a new stock of goods, in the line of Gents' Furnishing Goods, Clothing, Hats, Shirts, and all kinds of Gents' Underwear. Mr. D. selected his stock in person in New York city, and his large experience in the business affords the best guaranty as to quality and lowness of price. Don't forget to give him a call.

The rains of last week were good as far as they went, but we need more. It is now about as dry as ever in this vicinity.

A CASUAL LOOK through Johnson's and Johnson's satisfies us that their stock is one of the largest and most complete ever brought to this place, and still new goods arriving. Their stock of Clothing, Domestic etc., is immense, and that of men's youths' and boys' Hats and Caps is among the largest ever offered in this market. Their stock of Dress Goods, Trimmings and embroideries is also extensive as well as very attractive. In short they have a full line of everything in the dry goods department. Do not fail to call and examine.

The court room, we notice has been carpeted and furnished with chandeliers in accordance with a former suggestion of Judge Moore's. We beg to suggest that for the benefit of the building, the stairways need carpeting quite as much as the court room, and the additional expense required would be comparatively trifling.

New For San Marcos.

Those who have not already learned that J. B. Hankla keeps the only exclusive boot and shoe Store, would do well to call and see his numerous styles of Eastern bought and genuine hand made Boots and shoes.

New goods coming in all the time now. I guarantee the cheapest and best Boots and shoes for men and boys, in town. No trouble to show goods. Don't buy elsewhere before seeing my goods, which must be sold.

One man is kept constantly at repairing. Always ready to accommodate. J. B. HANKLA.

A GLARING case of railroad carelessness occurred last week at the crossing of the Blanco, this side of Kyle, by which Mr. Warnken, whose farm lies close by, lost a very large and valuable mule, and a train of passenger coaches came near being derailed, which would undoubtedly have resulted in great loss of human life. Several of Mr. Warnken's horses and the mule above mentioned were on the track. We have it on good authority that by checking up a little and sounding the whistle the animals would all have promptly left the track. But on the contrary the train was allowed to proceed at full speed, till too late, and the loss of a valuable animal and the risk to the passengers by dragging and running over his carcass was the result.

We refer to this matter in no unfriendly spirit to the railroad, but in justice to all whom it may concern.

Full line of guns, both breach and muzzle loading, at GIESSEN'S.

PROF. RYAN and his son Rolla, a humorist of wonderful gifts and resources, gave two entertainments at this place to crowded houses on Tuesday and Wednesday nights. Rolla's delineations of character, especially of Southern and Western were wonderfully graphic.

School Books and School Supplies, at lowest prices, at SAN MARCOS BOOK STORE.

SPEAKING of Kyle, we wonder none of its citizens care to take the trouble to write up the news and progress of that town for the FREE PRESS. We should like to publish such letters, and their publication would certainly benefit Kyle.

By the way, Prof. Jordan expressly promised the FREE PRESS a good advertisement of Kyle Academy, but seems to have forgotten it. Such an omission should not have been made in justice to the FREE PRESS, and still less with reference to the interests of the Academy.

THE railroad having built a handsome passenger depot at this place, our corporate authorities or citizens should at once make a good sidewalk to connect with it. There is scarcely anything of more pressing importance.

REMEMBER you can get the latest copies St. Louis, Chicago and Cincinnati daily papers, as well as many others of interest at the FREE PRESS office.

As we go to press but little business has been done in court. The grand jury have returned five bills, and the parties are all in jail.

WE compile the following showing of the local produce, shipped by railroad, from August 1, 1882 to July 31, 1883 of San Marcos, Kyle, DuPre, Manchaca and New Braunfels:

	Bulk.	Grain.	Cotton.
	Pounds.	Pounds.	Bales.
San Marcos.....	306,390		8,801
Kyle.....	296,280		6,847
DuPre.....	133,604
Manchaca.....	46,199
New Braunfels.....	734,900		12,970

Personals.

Springer Davis is bailiff to the grand jury.

W. J. Good is foreman of the grand jury.

Dr. Trippie has removed to Salado, Bell county.

Miss Alice Collins presided at the organ at the Baptist church on Sunday.

Mrs. Ragsdale returned a few weeks since from her sojourn near Kingsbury.

Mr. Harris, late of Overton, Texas, is now railroad freight agent here, in place of Mr. Kennedy.

Mr. Griffin, who bought and improved the David Coreham place, has gone back to Eastern Texas.

R. B. Chastain has gone to Palestine to reside, and will take charge of the pumps at Trinity and Keechi.

Mr. Laney has sold his ranch heretofore advertised in the FREE PRESS, to Gilbert Gay, of Dewitt county.

Miss Rowena Lily has returned to San Marcos since the death of her father, and is stopping at Mr. Holland's.

Mrs. Hook, the associate of Miss Coleman in the Mullins place boarding house, arrived from Missouri last week.

We regret to hear of the death of Mrs. R. I. Love. It is but recently that she left this place to join her husband at Meridian.

Mr. Price, of Green & Price, who has been spending some time out West since his return from New York, is again at his post.

W. A. Bowen, traveling correspondent of the Austin Statesman, was in town one day last week, and gave the FREE PRESS a call.

H. B. Shafer has removed to this place for the sake of school privileges. He bought the old J. C. Rogers place, and is residing there.

The finest lot of lumber we believe we ever saw is now being turned out by Mead, of Christian & Co., for the new residence of Judge Wood.

Rev. John Slack, colored, who raised a crop on Mr. Otation's place the present season, has been arrested and jailed at Austin on charges of burglary and horse-stealing.

J. L. Williamson, of Purgatory, called the first of the week to renew his subscription. We suggested the idea of a post office there; he said one was much needed. We believe they might get it.

New dwelling houses surprise us on every hand. One just above Mr. Franklin's we learn is being built by Sheriff Barber. And Mr. Henniger, the blacksmith, is building another just in front of Ned Kyle's.

John T. Wilson has favored us with a sample of grapes of his home production. He produced them by grafting an improved variety on native vines. The fruit is larger and better than the Black Spanish.

The following attorneys from abroad, among others, are in attendance at the present term of our District court: J. M. Bethany, prosecutor, Shelly, Sneed and Walton, of Austin, Sayers, of Bastrop and Burges, of Seguin.

W. C. Dugger returned home from New York this week. He came through Arkansas, and brought us a generous sample of muscadine grapes. He says there is a profusion of fruits of all kinds in Arkansas, and good crops generally.

W. D. Ward, traveling correspondent of the San Antonio Express, and well known here, killed a young man known as Bud Fly, son of B. F. Fly, of Austin, in a saloon at Hondo City on the 11th inst. Both had been drinking. Ward is under arrest.

Rev. Mr. Abbott preached an interesting sermon at the Baptist church on Sunday, taking his text from the book of Job, the oldest and certainly one of the most interesting in the Bible. He also delivered some subsequent sermons on temperance to good houses.

W. O. Thomas and Judge Wood have done a good work by making effectual provision for draining the street on the upper side of their respective home places—something which should have been done long since by the town authorities. Private enterprise appears to be more reliable.

Billy Thomas and Joe Earnest returned last week from another trip to Indiana and Illinois. They are charmed with the style of living of the small farmers of that region. No wonder, for they and others similar throughout the Union are the happiest, most independent people in the world, and the very salt of Republican institutions.

We notice that Owen Ford, Esq., is making a rather alarming innovation in his new residence now in progress—he is actually building the chimneys inside instead of outside, in disregard of all the old Texas practices and traditions on the subject. We submit that Ex-Gov. Roberts should be appealed to to write another book devoted to the denunciation of such outrageous conduct.

Misses Sallie and Ella Horn, accompanied by their brother James and Master Petie Thomas, recently spent two or three days among friends at this place. Miss Ella has been residing at Waco since their removal from this place, the rest of the party belong to Center Point, Kerr county. Mrs. Delony, the older sister, and former head of the family, was recently married to Rev. Dr. Littlepage, a veteran Methodist minister of Fairfield, Texas.

District Court.

Commenced on Monday. Judge Moore's charge to the jury was in the main, sound and able. His stern condemnation of mob law in all its forms was especially timely and impressive. He also made special reference to fence cutting, which is becoming prevalent in some parts of the State. Happily it is not likely to prevail much in our county, which is in the main settled up by small farmers and land-owners.

Obituary.

Little Dora, the sweet little babe of Tote and Sallie Reasener was born May 24th, 1882, and was taken across the dark river of death by the death angel, Sept. 1st, 1883. This tells us one more tender bud has been clipped by the power of God and has been transplanted in the garden of sweet rest where it will forever bloom in perfection. It is true the dear parents can have their little one with them to more on earth, but they can meet with it on the other shore, where the sad word "farewell" shall not be known. AMEN.
